

MILITARY bolt action

surplus guns

As the military updates their firearms, gunowners collect the surplus

afordable sport

These types of guns are easy to find, inexpensive, and use common ammo making this an affordable shooting discipline

friendly competition

Matches and competitions sprung up using this suprlus of guns

typical guns:

Springfield 1903
Springfield A303
M96 Sweedish Mauser
91/30 Mosin Nagant

course of fire

10 practice rounds
5 strings of 10 shots for record 100 yards with open or iron sights

training advantages

With the heavy pull, iron sights, small targets, and a good recoil, this discipline builds skills that are transferable to hunting and other types of competitions

matches near you

Check with the ORA for military bolt action going on in our clubs across the state

Find a military bolt action match in Oklahoma at www.oklahomarifle.org